2. The appellant is absent today. He has sent an email mentioning therein that he is unable to attend today's hearing.
3. The respondent states that the information has been sent to the appellant.
3. The perusal of the file shows that the respondent has sent complete information to the appellant. During the last hearing, last opportunity was given to the appellant to appear before the Commission. Today again the appellant is not present.
4. A close scrutiny of the questions asked and the answers given shows that the information, as demanded, has been supplied in its entirety by the Respondent. The appellant, however, is unnecessarily dragging the matter with some ulterior motive. It appears that he is trying to pressurize the department into doing his bidding through the misuse of RTI Act. I cannot allow such practices.
