ORDER

The case has been heard through video conferencing.

The appellant had sought information about municipal properties located on the railway road, Khanna questioning the provisions under which they have been rented out and the status of their structural condition etc.

The respondents have replied to the appellant vide their memo dated 08.11.2017 and 05.01.2018 enlightening him about the provisions of law/instructions. Some of his requisitions are in the nature of questions/explanations which the respondents are not obliged to answer. The Commission feels that he has been suitably informed. No further action is called for.

Disposed.
