ORDER

The RTI application is dated 12.10.2019 vide which the appellant has sought information as enumerated in his RTI application. First appeal was filed with the First Appellate Authority (hereinafter called FAA) on 18.11.2019 and second appeal was filed in the Commission on 08.01.2020 under Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter called RTI Act). Notice of hearing was issued to the parties for today by the Commission.

2. The representatives of the respondents state that on his first appeal, First Appellate Authority given his verdict on 3.1.2020 that the available record might be inspected from the appellant and provide copies of the documents identified by him on the spot. The appellant inspected the record and 58 pages were supplied to him through registered post on 8.1.2020. They further state that complete information has been provided to the appellant and nothing has been left, which could be supplied to the appellant as per his RTI application. On this, the appellant states that he has received 58 pages sent to him and only one page is relevant to the information sought by him and 57 pages do not relate to his RTI application. The undersigned asks the appellant to know what information is left which could be supplied to him. On this, the appellant states that he may be known that pages 9 to 13 are continue or not. The respondents state that Sr. No.9 to 13 (out of 58 pages) are in sequence in the information supplied to him.

3. After hearing the parties and going through the record available on the case file, it is revealed that complete information has been provided to the appellant and nothing has been left which could be supplied to the appellant. The query raised by the appellant regarding pages No.9 to 13 are in sequence or not, the respondents state that these are in sequence. With these observations, the present case is disposed of and closed. Copies of the order be sent to the parties.

ORDER

The RTI application is dated 12.10.2020 vide which the appellant has sought information as enumerated in his RTI application. First appeal was filed with the First Appellate Authority (hereinafter called FAA) on 15.11.2019 and second appeal was filed in the Commission on 08.01.2020 under Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter called RTI Act). Notice of hearing was issued to the parties for today by the Commission.

2. The appellant states that no information has been provided to him till date. He further states that he has applied for seeking information on 06.01.2020 whereas the respondents have written in reference to his letter dated 16.01.2020. On the other hand, the respondents state that information sought by the appellant may be applied for information on 06.01.2020 but in their branch the letter was received on 16.01.2020. They further states that the information relates to third party and cannot be supplied as per Section 8(i)(j) of the Right to Information Act, 2005. They further state that they have sent reply to the appellant vide their letter dated 21.01.2020 through registered post.

3. After hearing the parties and going through the record available on the case file, it is revealed that the appellant is seeking information relating to third party which is exempted under Section 8(1)(j) and 8(i)(h) of the RTI Act, 2005. The respondents are directed to correct the date of appellant's letter dated 06.01.2020 instead of 16.01.2020. The respondents assure that they will correct the same and intimate the same after correction. Accordingly, the present case is disposed of and closed. Copies of the order be sent to the parties.
