Complaint CASE NO. 545OF 2022 CISCO WEBEX PROCEEDINGS

Both these Sections prohibit disclosure of information connected with ongoing investigations and prosecutions and, information disclosure of which would compromise the source of the information of law enforcement authorities and could jeopardize the life or physical safety of those providing such tip-offs. There is a strong case that information connected with such law enforcement work by a public authority must be provided requisite protection from disclosure in view of its uncontested impact on the functioning of the public authority and, in that sense, all general law enforcing agencies. The RTI Act has very thoughtfully restricted access to information in such matters.

DECISION

6. In the light of the aforementioned settled position of law, this Commission is of the considered opinion that the contention of the respondent is found reasonable and there appears no reason to interfere with the same. Moreover viewing the consecutive absence of the complainant the Commission presumes that he does not want to pursue his case anymore. However, the appellant is at liberty to obtain necessary information from the Disciplinary Authority at the appropriate stage, which as a matter of legal norm is anyway made available to the accused to prove his innocence.

The appeal is accordingly dismissed.
