At the last hearing on 13.11.2020, the respondent PIO was given one final opportunity to furnish copies of the dispatch register; dak register, etc requested by the complainant. He has again failed to comply contending that the requested information is far too voluminous (5200 pages as intimated by the various concerned branches). It has however been the complainant's contention that the requested information cannot be voluminous since it is pertains to period for which the government had withdrawn all work from the officer cited in the RTI application.

3. This Commission directs the respondent PIO-cum-Deputy Director to furnish copies of the 5,200 pages (as claimed by him) on a pen-drive to the complainant before the next hearing.

4. IMPORTANT! All documents / information supplied to appellants / complainants must mandatorily be attested as under:
