Complaint Case No. 1122 of 2018

Present: Sh.Sarabjit Singh as Complainant
Sh.Paramjit Singh, Addl. SE PSPCL Chandigarh for the Respondent

ORDER:

The complainant through RTI application dated 14.08.2018 has sought information regarding master file pertaining to A/c No.J65/MS0014/0059 in name of Shri Ram Food Products Jamsheer related to AEE Distribution Commercial unit No.5 Jalandhar Cantt sent by DOEACC Centre Chandigarh and other information concerning the office of PSPCL Patiala. The complainant was not provided the information after which he filed complaint with the Commission on 11.10.2018.

The respondent present pleaded that the available information was sent to the complainant vide letter dated 06.09.2018 which however, could not be delivered and received back with the remarks of postal authorities "Not met". Thereafter, the information was provided to the complainant by hand on 17.10.2018. The complainant claims that the information is incomplete and not as per the RTI application. The respondent pleaded that the entire record pertaining to the period prior to 08.06.2014 was destroyed in the devastating fire that broke out in NIELIT on 08.06.2014 resulting in the collapse of building situated in Sector 17, Chandigarh, so no more record is available.

Keeping the above in view, the Commission finds no malafide on the part of the PIO in providing the information and directs the complainant that if the complainant still have any discrepancies in the information provided, he should go to the First Appellate Authority.

No further course of action is required. The case is disposed off and closed.

Appeal Case No. 1283 of 2018

Present: None for the Appellant
Satyajit Singh, JE, MC Jagraon, for the Respondent

ORDER:

The case was first heard on 19.06.2018. The appellant informed that he has received the information but he was not satisfied with the information regarding points 3,4,5,6 & 8. The PIO was absent. The PIO was directed to provide the information regarding these points within 10 days.

The case was again heard on 24.07.2018. Since the complete information was not supplied, the PIO was directed to send the complete information duly attested within ten days. Sh.Manohar Singh, PIO was also directed to be personally present on the next date of hearing with suitable reply and explain as to why action should not be taken against him for not complying with the orders of the Commission.

The case again came up for hearing on 20.08.2018. The Commission found that the PIO is showing laxity in providing the information and not complying the orders of the Commission. The Commission made clear that on the next date of hearing, the designated PIO should be personally present with explanation for not complying the orders of the Commission failing which the Commission will be compelled to issue summons u/s 18(3)(a) of the RTI Act 2005 and also initiate action under the provisions of RTI Act.

The appellant was absent. The appellant was also directed to be present to go through the information, failing which the Commission will be constrained to decide the case ex-parte.”

The case was last heard on 26.09.2018. The respondent was absent and sought exemption due to election duty of the staff.

The appellant pleaded that the PIO has not abided by the orders of the Commission. The PIO was directed to send the information regarding points 3,4,5,6 & 8 as per RTI Act within 15 days failing to do so, the Commission will be constrained to issue show cause notice The PIO was also directed to send compliance report before the next date of hearing to the Commission.

The case was last heard on 19.11.2018. The order is reproduced hereunder:

“The appellant has informed that the information has not been provided to him so far. The respondent is absent. In the last hearing, the PIO had asked for exemption due to election duty of the staff. The PIO has now again asked for exemption citing the reason that the APIO dealing with such cases has been deputed for election duty.

In the last hearing, the PIO was directed to provide the information to the appellant within 15 days and send compliance report to the Commission. The PIO has neither provided the information nor appeared before the Commission. It appears that the PIO is not serious in complying with the orders of the Commission and not attending to the RTI application. The Commission has taken a serious note of this and hereby directs the PIO to show cause why penalty be not imposed on him under Section 20 of the RTI Act 2005 for not supplying the information within the statutorily prescribed period of time, he should file an affidavit in this regard, if there are other persons responsible for the delay in providing the information, the PIO is directed to inform such persons of the show cause and direct them to appear before the Commission along with the written replies.”

Hearing dated 14.01.2019:

The respondent present has submitted an affidavit stating that the information has been provided to the appellant as per available record vide letter dated 08.02.2018 and there is no more information in their record. The appellant is absent and has sought adjournment on medical grounds. The appellant vide email has informed that the PIO has not provided the information as per orders of the Commission.

In the last hearing, the PIO was absent and was issued show cause notice for not complying with the orders of the Commission. The PIO was directed to submit reply to the show cause on an affidavit. The PIO is absent and has preferred to send affidavit through his representative. The affidavit is not on the stamp paper. It appears that the PIO in the affidavit has given misleading statement that the information has been sent to the appellant since the respondent present could not answer whether the information relating to points 3,4,5,6 & 8 has been provided or not.

Keeping the above in view, the PIO is directed to appear personally on the next date of hearing and submit appropriate reply to the show cause notice. The PIO is also directed to send the information regarding points 3,4,5,6 & 8 to the appellant.

Both the parties to be present on 26.02.2019 at 11.00 AM for further hearing.
