ORDER

Vide my order dated 03.02.2016, the concerned J.E. was directed to arrange to provide her the samples of the works mentioned in the application. After hearing the parties it transpires that the exercise did not mature due to the ruckus at the site. It has also been alleged that the J.E. refused to associate with the PIO in drawing the samples and refused her to provide the details of the works done with the bricks purchased vide bills dated 26.12.2013, 13.02.2014 and 15.02.2014. The respondents are directed to do the needful failing which penal action shall follow. The exercise as mentioned in my earlier order dated 03.02.2016 shall be done now on 04.04.2016 at 11.00 AM. BDPO may seek the police help in case need be.

ORDER

Nobody is present on behalf of the respondent. The Commission has passed interim orders on 05.10.2015, 26.11.2015, 31.12.2015 and 03.02.2016 to ensure the compliance with the law.

The concern of the appellant consistently has been that one Sh. Manjit Singh who was penalized by the Commission for default in providing the information to the extent of Rs.20,000/- has not deposited the amount so far. More so to the neglect of the order he was promoted to the higher rank. The Commission had also advised the PIO in the office of the DFSC, Patiala to provide him the information regarding Point No. 5 which entailed the details of the blue cards issued in the district. It be furnished immediately if not already done.

A final opportunity is given to the PIO to intimate the Commission about the details of the realization of the aforesaid penalty. Simultaneously he is issued a show cause notice to show cause in writing or through affidavit under Section 20(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 as to why penalty @ Rs.
