Present: None on behalf of the Appellant.
 Sh. Ran Bahadur Singh, Incharge Office Kanungo – for Respondents.

ORDER

Sh. Ran Bahadur appearing on behalf of the respondents says that the relevant information has since been transmitted to him. The Commission has seen it and has found it to be in order. It further transpires that the appellant seemingly is obsessed with an issue of a mutation and is putting in horde of applications repeatedly on the same subject regardless of the fact that the Commission has decided the matter many times over. Even this bench has arranged to provide him information on multiple occasions. Thus being the case, there is no ground to entertain his further appeals/complaints.

The Assistant Registrar shall ensure that in case any complaint/appeal case is received from the Deputy Registrar, the same shall be disposed in terms of this order without issuing notice to the Parties.

Disposed.

 ASI Ranjit Singh, RTI Incharge, SSP Office, Fatehgarh Sahib – for Respondents.

ORDER

ASI Ranjit Singh appearing on behalf of the respondents says that the relevant information has been sent to him. It is being further submitted by him that he is filing repeated complaints and applications with the Police Department alleging some imaginary grouses and inane issues. He has been properly informed. He further says that he is misusing rather abusing RTI Act single-mindedly obsessed with a non-issue.

The Commission agrees with the submissions made by the respondent and finds no reason to continue the appeal.

Disposed.
