Respondent

Appeal Case No.: 197 of 2020
Heard Through Cisco Webex

Present: Appellant : Absent
Respondent: Absent

ORDER

1. This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 14.07.2020, 16.03.2020 vide which both parties were absent despite of directions made to present the case. Also, in the last order the appellant was directed to ask the information related to any particular state but he failed to do so.
2. Appellant, Sh. Baijeet Singh is not present for today's hearing but, same email is received by the the bench of undersigned as it was received on dated 09.07.2020. This email is taken on record.
3. Respondent PIO, is not present for today's hearing, but an email dated 17.08.2020 is received by the bench of undersigned. Wherein, it is mentioned that information pertaining from the duration of 01.01.2010 to 01.10.2019 cannot be provided, still if the appellant requires any personal information related to case/application filled then he can retrieve by submitting an separate application for that. This email is taken on record with supporting enclosures.
4. In the view of consecutive absence of both the parties and going through the case file, the Commission finds that in the present case, there is no tangible public purpose which has been cited by the appellant that would convince the Commission to override the guaranteed exemption under Section 7(9) RTI ACT 2005 (Vague information) to the individual. A mere suspicion cannot constitute the basis for a public interest.

Therefore, the PIO is justified in denying the information sought by the appellant. The replies of respondents upheld. The matter was disposed of accordingly at Commission's end.
