4. On the assurance of respondent as mentioned above and going through the documents placed on record, it is found that written reply satisfying the RTI application has been sent to the appellant. Secondly, orders of Commission are available on official website of Commission but the appellant has not shown any interest to pursue his case further nor does he updated his communication address to the Commission.
5. In the view of all above, no further cause of action is required in this case at this instant and hence instant appeal case is disposed of and closed on merit basis.
6. Send the copy of order to the parties.
