4. Respondent Sh. Avtar Singh stated that stated that sought information can only be furnished if the appellant deposits the requisite fees and the appellant was duly informed about the same in the stipulated time period as prescribed under the RTI Act 2005.

Section 7(1) & 7(3) of the RTI Act are relevant and are given below...

"7. (1) Subject to the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 5 or the proviso to sub.-section (3) of section 6, the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, on receipt of a request under section 6 shall, as expeditiously as possible, and in any case within thirty days of the receipt of the request, either provide the information on payment of such fee as may be prescribed or reject the request for any of the reasons specified in sections 8 and 9:

(3) Where a decision is taken to provide the information on payment of any further fee representing the cost of providing the information, Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, shall send an intimation to the person making the request, giving-

(a) the details of further fees representing the cost of providing the information as determined by him, together with the calculations made to arrive at the amount in accordance with fee prescribed under sub-section (1), requesting him to deposit that fees, and the period intervening between the despatch of the said intimation and payment of fees shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the period of thirty days referred to in that sub-section;

5. The Bench noted that the then PIO had right in demanding additional fees from the appellant since the mandated period of 30 days was not over. In the view of above, this Commission advises the appellant to deposit the requisite amount following which he is to be supplied duly attested copy of the information pertaining to his RTI application.
