2. Appellant, Smt. Shivani Jaswal is absent for second time without any intimation to the commission.
3. Viewing the absence of the appellant and non-implementation of the order of the commission. The modus operandi adopted by the Appellant is nothing but a classic example of systematic persecution as well as wasting precious time of the public authority as well as the Commission at the cost of the public exchequer.

It is pertinent to mention herein that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has discussed the issue in great detail in the matter of Ashok Kumar Pandey v. The State of West Bengal [AIR 2003 SC 280, para 11], wherein J.Pasayat has held as under:

4. "... It is depressing to note that on account of such trumped up proceedings initiated before the Courts, innumerable days are wasted, which time otherwise could have been spent for the disposal of cases of the genuine litigants. Though we spare no efforts in fostering and developing the CIC/MPOTR/A/2018/637392 laudable concept of PIL and extending our long arm of sympathy to the poor, the ignorant, the oppressed and the needy whose fundamental rights are infringed and violated and whose grievances go unnoticed, unrepresented and unheard; yet we cannot avoid but expressing our opinion that while genuine litigants with legitimate grievances relating to civil matters involving properties worth hundreds of millions of rupees and criminal cases in which persons sentenced to death facing gallows under untold agony and persons sentenced to life imprisonment and kept in incarceration for long years, persons suffering from undue delay in service matters, Government or private, persons awaiting the disposal of case... ..

..etc are all standing in a long serpentine queue for years with the fond hope of getting into the Courts and having their grievances redressed, the busybodies, meddling interlopers, wayfarers or officious interveners having absolutely no public interest except for personal gain or private profit either of themselves or as proxy of others or for any other extraneous motivation or for glare of publicity break
