APPEAL CASE NO.180/2018

Date of RTI application : 01.04.2017
Date of First Appeal : 11.05.2017
Date of Order of FAA : Nil
Date of 2nd Appeal/complaint :29.12.2017

Present:           None on behalf of the Appellant.
                          Sh. Jatinder Pal Singh, Jr. Assistant, MC Office, Jagraon – for Respondents.

ORDER

The case has been heard through video conferencing.

The following order was made by this forum on 06.06.2018:

“The respondents have sent a memo dated 07.03.2018 wherein it has been submitted that the information has been supplied to the appellant on 19.05.2017. The appellant says that it is deficient. He is advised to specifically pin-point the deficiency to the respondents under intimation to the Commission. The respondents shall remove the deficiencies thus pointed out before the next date of hearing.”

“The case has come up today. The appellant has failed to come up with any tangible infirmity in the information already supplied to him. Even the perusal of the application suggests that the information is very exhaustive, detailed and indiscriminate, the provision of which shall definitely erode the resources of the Public Authority. The respondents are advised to allow him an inspection of the relevant record and provide him certified copies of the documents which have not been supplied earlier but not beyond fifty pages in all. They shall send him an intimation of inspection by fixing date and time.”

The matter has come up today for hearing. The appellant is absent. Nothing has been heard from him also. The respondents, on the other hand, had communicated to the Commission in writing that the appellant was requested to inspect the record in compliance with the orders of the Commission. However, he failed to turn up.

The Commission feels that the appellant has been sufficiently informed. His persistent neglect to the notice of the Public Authority as well as the Commission, suggests that he is no more interested to pursue the matter. In view of the same the appeal is disposed.

ORDER

The case has been heard through video conferencing.

The following order was made by this forum on 06.06.2018:

“Sh. Ranjit Singh appearing on behalf of the respondents says that the appellant has been duly informed. The appellant denies having received any communication. The respondents are directed to file a written statement to the Commission before the next date of hearing. They should also arrange to provide the information as asked for to the extent possible.”

*“The case has come up today. The appellant has failed to come up with any tangible infirmity in the information already supplied to him. The matter has again come up today for hearing. The appellant is absent. Nothing has been heard from him also. The respondents, on the other hand, had communicated to the Commission in writing that the information had been supplied to him vide letter No. 384 dated 06.03.2018 but he denied the same. The respondents have again provided the information vide their letter No.803 dated 26.04.2018 and conveyed that no more information is available on record.

The Commission feels that the appellant has been sufficiently informed. The absence of the appellant suggests that he is no more interested to pursue the matter. In view of the same the appeal is disposed.

ORDER

The case has been heard through video conferencing.

Sh. Yudhvir Singh, BDPO is present in the video conferencing. He submits that the appellant was provided with the information on 29.12.2017 under registered cover. Taking note of the same her appeal was filed by the First Appellate Authority. The appellant, on the other hand, says that she has been made to run from pillar to post to procure the information which was belatedly given to her and that too deficiently.

Sh. Yudhvir Singh, BDPO submits that he has brought along the deficient information which has been handed over to the appellant on spot at the behest of the Commission. Undoubtedly, a significant delay has taken place beyond the mandated period in supplying the information. The respondents owe an explanation. The PIO is hereby directed to explain the delay in writing and show cause as to why he should not be penalized by Rs.250/- per day of delay subject to maximum of Rs.25,000/- under Section 20(1) of the RTI Act and why the appellant be not compensated for the detriment and harassment suffered by her.
