3. The appellant states that no information has been given to him so far.

4. The respondent states that they have sent their reply to the Commission office.

5. After hearing both the parties and examining the case file, it has been seen and observed that this particular Complaint is an attempt to make use of the different provisions of the Act to have access to the personal information of the official which smacks of its use not for any public cause. The nature of information sought is mainly the information which has the relevance and governance of the relationship of the employer and the employee and not between this official and the appellant.
