Complaint Case No.159 of 2021
(Cisco Webex Proceedings)

RTI application filed on : 03-09-2020
PIO replied on : -

Present: None

ORDER:

1. This order may be read with the reference of previous order dated 21.06.2021 vide which the appellant was asked to point out deficiencies in written to respondent under intimation to the commission.
2. The respondent-Public Information Officer has already filed the response but neither the appellant submitted any deficiency in the information nor he is attending the hearings.
3. The complainant remained absent during the last three hearings consecutively.
4. The complainant has approached the Commission under the provision of Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005; no directions for providing further information can be given by the Commission.

In complaint case under Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005, the Commissioners have no jurisdiction to pass an order providing for an access to the information which is as under:- (31. We uphold the said contention and do not find any error in the impugned judgment of the High Court whereby it has been held that the Commissioner while entertaining a complaint under Section 18 of the said Act has no jurisdiction to pass an order providing for access to the information).

5. Since there is an alternative and efficacious remedy of first appeal available to the Complainant under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005, which has not been availed in the instant case and the First Appellate Authority has not had the occasion to review the decision of the PIO, as envisaged under the RTI Act by passing a detailed well reasoned speaking order.

Complaint Case No.159 of 2021
(Cisco Webex Proceedings)

6. If, however, the complainant does not feel satisfied with the decision of the First Appellate Authority, he will be at liberty to file a Second Appeal before the Commission under Section 19(3) of the RTI Act, 2005.
7. In view of the observations noted above, the instant case is remanded to the concerned First Appellate Authority along with a copy of RTI application for their ready reference. The appeal is disposed of accordingly, with the above observations.
