Appeal Case No. 3069 of 2017

Present:- Shri Naresh Devgan Sharma, appellant, in person.

Shri Ramesh Kumar, ASI, on behalf of the respondents.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 16.07.2018 vide which the respondent was directed to send one more copy of the provided information to the appellant and the respondent was directed to allow inspection of relevant record to the appellant to identify the specific documents required by him and on identification supply the same the same to him on the spot. The case was adjourned to 19.09.2018 and was further postponed for today due to administrative reasons.

2. The appellant states that he has sent deficiencies vide letter dated 13.03.,2018 but after the receipt of the same, he has not received any information till date. He visited the office of the respondents for inspection but he was not allowed to inspect the documents and no information has been supplied to him in compliance to the previous order.

3. This has resulted in much avoidable inconvenience and hardship to the Appellant. He is, therefore, entitled to be compensated under Section 19(8)(b) of RTI Act 2005 for the loss and detriment suffered by him. In the circumstances, I am of the view that ends of justice would be met if a sum of Rs.2000/- (Rupees Two Thousand Only) is awarded to the Appellant as compensation. I order accordingly.

4. This amount shall be payable by the respondents from the State exchequer within fifteen days from the receipt of this order under intimation to the Commission.

5. Looking at the lackadaisical and highly irresponsible attitude of the respondents, the PIO is issued a Show Cause Notice under Section 20 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 as to why penalty of Rs.250.00 per day and subject to maximum of Rs.25000/- may not be imposed on him for his failure to give the information within the stipulated time. In case he wants to give any justification for delay, he may file his reply. He is further directed to supply complete information to the appellant before the next date of hearing.

6. He may also make use of the next date of hearing for his personal hearing as well under the principles of natural justice.

7. Adjourned to 27.11.2018 (at 11.30 AM) for further proceedings.
