2. The appellant has sought the information from the Secretary, Rural Development & Panchayat Deptt., Pb. but the said office has already transferred the RTI application of the appellant to the Addl. Deputy Commissioner (Dev.), Gurdaspur.

3. It is appropriate to mention that Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its order rendered on 12.12.2011 in Civil Appeal Nos.10787 – 10788 of 2011 (arising out of SLP @ No.32768-32769/2010) has held that while entertaining a complaint under Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005, the Commissioners have no jurisdiction to pass an order providing for an access to the information. Since the complainant has approached the Commission under the provisions of Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005, no directions for providing further information can be given by the Commission.

An alternative and efficacious remedy of first appeal is available to the complainant under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 which has not been availed in the instant case. Accordingly, the complainant requested that he has no objection if his present case is treated as first appeal and the First Appellate Authority may be directed to pass the appropriate order. Since the complainant is interested in getting the information. Therefore,
