Appeal Case No. 501 of 2018

Present: None on behalf of appellant.
Shri Harminder Singh Randhawa, Junior Assistant, on behalf of respondents.

ORDER:

The representative of respondents states in the court that as per the directions of the court on the last date of hearing, the sought for information has been supplied to the appellant.

2. The appellant is not present in the court. However, an e-mail is received from the advocate of the appellant stating therein that her client has received the information. She has further written that the respondents have taken about 14 months in supplying the information, therefore, penal action may be taken against the respondents.

3. A perusal of case file reveals that in this case eight hearing have been held since the first date of hearing i.e. 03-04-2018. The respondents attended the court on four occasions but the appellant did not attend even a single hearing in the court.

4. The reply of Secretary, RTA, Amritsar is also perused wherein he has written that the appellant was asked to produce his I.D. proof which the appellant did not submit up to 30-10-2018.

5. The respondents have taken the shelter of not producing I.D. proof by the appellant for not supplying the information. Keeping all the circumstances in view, the respondents are warned to be more careful in dealing with the RTI applications in future.

6. As the information stands supplied, the case is disposed of and closed.

7. Copy of order be sent to the parties.
