None on behalf of the respondents.

ORDER

In this case, Smt. Shiv Mehra, vide her RTI application dated 26.09.2018, addressed to the PIO, sought certain information regarding land of Khasra No. 973, Khewat No. 213, Khatauni No. 248, Page No. 166, Jamabandi 2015-2016. On receiving no information, she filed a complaint with the Commission vide application dated nil, which was received in the Commission on 11.02.2019. Accordingly, a Notice of Hearing was sent to the concerned parties for today.

2. Today, none is present on behalf of the respondents without any intimation. However, a letter No. 1977, dated 19.03.2019 has been received from PIO-cum-Superintendent, office of District & Sessions Judge, Amritsar informing that reply has been sent to the complainant vide letter No. 7744, dated 29.09.2018 by District & Sessions Judge, Amritsar that the information sought for is neither available nor related to this office.

3. In these circumstances, it is relevant to invite the attention of the Complainant to the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India rendered on 12.12.2011 in Civil Appeal Nos. 10787-10788 of 2011(arising out of SLP(C) No. 32768-32769/2010) – Chief Information

Commissioner and another Vs. State of Manipur and another, in Para 31 whereof, it has been held that while entertaining a complaint case under Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005, the Commissioners have no jurisdiction to pass an order providing for an access to the information. As such, since the complainant has approached the Commission under the provisions of Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005, no directions for providing further information can be given by the Commission.

4. Since there is an alternative and efficacious remedy of first appeal available to the Complainant under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005, which has not been availed in the instant case and the First Appellate Authority has not had the occasion to review the decision of the PIO, as envisaged under the RTI Act by passing a detailed well reasoned speaking order. In case the Complainant has any grouse about the provided information, he is advised to challenge the response of the PIO before the designated First Appellate Authority, as envisaged under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005, who will decide the matter in accordance with the provisions of the RTI Act within the prescribed time limit, after giving an opportunity of hearing to all concerned, by passing a speaking order.

5. If, however, the Complainant does not feel satisfied with the decision of the First Appellate Authority, he will be at liberty to file a Second Appeal before the Commission under Section 19(3) of the RTI Act, 2005.

6. In view of the observations noted above, the instant case is hereby ordered to be closed and disposed of.
