ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 19.11.2018 vide which the appellant was directed to visit the office of the respondent and inspect the record.

2. The respondent is absent today. He has sent an email mentioning therein that the appellant has received the information and he has enclosed the acknowledgment of the appellant.

3. The appellant Sh. Hari Singh states that no information has been given to him by the respondents. He has also given his written reply that Respondent misbehaved with him when he went to his office to collect the information.

4. In this regard, Respondent is warned that in case there are complaints regarding misbehavior on the part of officials responsible for supplying him the information, the Commission will treat the case as one of harassment of an RTI Applicant and deal with the defaulters sternly.

5. The perusal of the file shows that the appellant has attended five hearings before the Commission. He has, therefore, suffered mental harassment and financial loss in attending the hearings in the Commission. For this the Appellant demands that the Respondent be penalized and he be compensated for the detriment suffered. In this view of the matter, ends of justice would be met by awarding a compensation of Rs.5000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) to the Appellant.

6. This amount shall be payable by the Respondent from the State exchequer within fifteen days from the receipt of this order under intimation to the Commission.

7. PIO may take note that this is the last opportunity given to him/her to appear before the commission, otherwise bailable warrant will be issued against him/her.
